County Recognizes 10 Human Services Employees at Public Service Recognition Ceremony

HS Connection Staff

The San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors recognized 45 County employees, 10 of whom were from Human Services, on May 15, 2014, during the Public Service Recognition ceremony at the San Bernardino County Government Center. The annual event recognizes the everyday work of public servants. One employee from each County department was selected for an Award for Excellence, based on customer service, initiative and leadership, accomplishments, and the commitment to the realization of our County-wide Vision.

Following are the Human Services Award for Excellence recipients:

- Cameron Ward, Department of Aging and Adult Services
- Michael Oliver, Department of Behavioral Health (photo unavailable)
- Sandy Roberts, Department of Child Support Services
- Staci Richards, Children and Family Services
- Brandy Nelson, Children's Network
- Carla Towns, Human Services Auditing, HS Administration
- Ana Perez, Preschool Services Department
- Dale Parker, Department of Public Health
- Aron Martinez, Transitional Assistance Department
- Dawn Ortiz, Veterans Affairs
